OUTLOOK

- OIL AND GAS SECTOR STOCKS, OTHERS LIFT THE MARKET FOR THE THIRD CONSECUTIVE WEEK
- Market characteristics: The market last week recorded moderate volatility as buying and selling investors competed for best bargains. Despite release of more Q3/9months financial results and depressed prices, net selling activities prevailed as market breadth closed negative, however renewed interest in Oil and Gas sector stocks driven by possible upside in global oil prices helped lift the market into the positive region. Hence the following stocks attracted investors' patronage – DIAMOND, FIDELITYBK, ZENITH, TOTAL, SEPLAT, FO, OANDO others. The following stocks were however kicked off investors portfolio train –WAPCO, DANGFLOUR, PZ, REDSTATREX, others
- Market Outlook: Political risk still looms large as major determinant of direction of the equities market in the short-term. Despite oil prices trending upwards, their positive impact on the economy being off-set by declining reserves as the CBN seeks to maintain the exchange rate. Another threat being return of inflationary pressure which analysts expect the CBN to tackle by further tightening of liquidity, the impact of which shall be improved fixed income yields . The market shall however witness intermittent recoveries/rallies driven by depressed share prices
