OUTLOOK

- DANGCEM, OTHER DEPRESS THE ASI FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE WEEK
- Market characteristics: The market last week recorded moderate volatility as buying and selling investors competed for best bargains. Although buying activities came in strong, sell pressure in DANGCEM depressed the share price below N200 at N195 and helped push the ASI into negative territory. The following stocks also witnessed sell-offs by investors last week – IKEJAHOTEL, WAPCO, FO, PRESCO, OANDO others. While the following attracted investors patronage – PRESTIGE, PZ, HALLMARK, MOBIL, FLOURMILL, GSK, CAP others
- Market Outlook: CBN MPC Meeting held 22nd and 23rd November 2018 voted to retain monetary policy parameters. The impact on equities will be based on how FPIs respond to the decision. Key factor that impacts on FPIs is exchange rate stability. CBN decision to hold rates is to ensure exchange rate and price stability. Ordinary these should be good news for FPIs but political risks still remains major determinant of direction of the equities market in the short-term until after the elections in March 2019, despite oil prices remaining high. Another threat being improved fixed income yields which on the flip side the current MPC decision will encourage. The equities market shall however experience volatility although the market trajectory will be downwards with intermittent recoveries/rallies as depressed prices provide bargain opportunities for investors
